

The present ban on a single corporation owning multi-media in one market is essential to preserve the integrity of the press. Newspapers need protection from powerful T.V. generated mega-bucks and the stifling of independent news. The changes in print since Murdoch got control is strong evidence of the dangers of media monopoly.